PROGRAM OF CULTURAL AND EDUCATIONAL COOPERATION BETWEEN

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF CROATIA AND

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL FOR THE YEARS 2010 - 2012

The Government of the Republic of Croatia and the Government of the State of Israel (hereinafter referred to as "the Parties"), guided by their desire to strengthen their friendly relations and to promote exchanges in the spheres of culture and education, based on the Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Croatia and the Government of the State of Israel on cooperation in the fields of Culture, Education and Science signed in Jerusalem on 30 of October 2001, have agreed on the following program of Cooperation for the years 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Both Parties are convinced that this cooperation shall contribute to the development of their relations and to raising awareness, particularly among youth, of the history and culture of the people of both countries.

1. EDUCATION

The Parties agree to promote cooperation in order to improve and strengthen mutual understanding and friendship between the two countries:

- 1.1. The Parties will promote exchange of information and constructive contacts between the two countries, in various aspects of education.
- 1.2. The Parties will encourage the development of cooperation between their educational institutions.
- 1.3. The Parties will, in accordance with their budgetary means, promote the exchanges of information, experience, documentation and experts in the following areas:
 - The education system of both countries;
 - Teacher training and life-long training for teachers;
 - School organization and management;
 - Education regulations (such as service regulations for teachers etc);
 - Special needs education;
 - Decentralization and school autonomy;
 - Civic Education;
 - Gifted children education;
 - Cultural and religious integration of minority groups (including joint projects);

- Anti-drugs programs (including joint projects);
- Foreign language teaching;
- Informal and formal education;
- Collaborative learning;
- Inclusive education;
- Culture and Heritage;
- Adult education (life long learning);
- Science and technology education;
- Youth contribution to the community:
- Development of life skills;
- Arts education.

In Croatia information on the educational system can be obtained from the website of the Ministry of Science, Education and Sports: http://www.mzos.hr.

In Israel information on the educational system can be obtained from the website of the Ministry of Education: http://www.education.gov.il.

- 1.4. The Parties are committed to preventing the publication of text books which encourage racism, anti-semitism, and xenophobia, in order to counter prejudice and negative stereotypes. Each Party will bring to the attention of the other if such publications are detected.
- 1.5. The Parties will put special emphasis on research and educational work related to the tragic fate of the Jewish community of Croatia during the Second World War under the Nazi occupation.

The Croatian Side will continue to include the issue of the Holocaust in the school curriculum.

1.6. Both Parties will cooperate to promote the inclusion of the issue of the Holocaust in the school curriculum.

The Parties stress the importance of enabling young people to learn about the Holocaust during their schooling, with reference also to the contents of the Stockholm Declaration of January 2000, which emphasizes the unique historical character of the Holocaust and denounces the still lingering dangers of genocide, racism, anti-semitism and xenophobia. In this context, the Parties will support educational activities undertaken at schools of all levels that aim at combating racism and anti-semitism.

- 1.7. The Parties will encourage participation of teachers and, particularly, history teachers, in courses dealing with the history of the Holocaust and anti-semitism which are organized by the Yad Veshem Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority in Jerusalem. The three-week courses for English speaking participants are conducted every year in January and July.
- 1.8. The Parties will act to promote the teaching of the language, literature, history and culture of the other Party at their respective primary, secondary and higher education institutions. For this purpose, the corresponding experts from the partner country will be invited to deliver lectures, hold seminars and conduct other educational activities. The conditions under which the teachers will perform their respective activities in the receiving country will be negotiated between the respective institutions of both countries or through diplomatic channels.

- 1.9. The Parties will encourage cooperation among schools on various projects based on Information and Communications Technology (ICT).
- 1.10. The Parties underscore the importance of reciprocal recognition of educational certificates, diplomas and academic degrees. The Parties will exchange information and documentation on this matter and are ready to hold negotiations in accordance to the laws and regulations of each Party.
